Plus Much More...

The Mesa Police Department L.E.E.D. Program is designed to provide exciting and challenging training for young people interested in a career in law enforcement.

L.E.E.D. members learn about many phases of police work, but are not placed in dangerous situations.

The L.E.E.D. Program is one of the best ways for youth to become involved with their community in a positive way and learn about law enforcement at the same time!
